

Tasmanian Seasonal Produce Guide

2024/2025

Visit and experience Tasmanian farms and businesses to buy local fruit and produce.

Quality over quantity, wildly fresh and crisp to the bite, here, flavour lasts.

The Tasmanian Seasonal Produce Guide has been designed for locals and visitors to source some of the freshest local produce directly from growers and producers. Grab a bag of fresh apples or cherries, a punnet of delicious berries, or a jar of honey to enjoy as you travel around and experience all that Tasmania has to offer.

Relax and enjoy your tour around our beautiful state and revel in the abundance of delicious fresh produce from one of the most ideal environments in the world.

We acknowledge the Tasmanian Aboriginal people as the traditional custodians of the land on which our industries cultivate and grow.

North West

We don't do things
by halves down here.

Boasting a rugged, dramatic coastline with picturesque beaches and rocky headlands, the North West offers breathtaking views of diverse landscapes and the untamed and wild Bass Strait.

Renowned for primary production, with iconic rich red soils, the North West yields bountiful crops such as apples, cherries, berries, peas, potatoes, carrots and onions. It is also the hub of the state's dairy production, crafting award-winning cheeses, creams, butters and icecreams.

01 Blue Hills Honey

Since 1955, Blue Hills Honey has epitomised the purity of Tasmania’s Tarkine wilderness. As a three-generation-strong family business, we’re renowned for our exceptional honey.

Immerse yourself in our world, where nature meets craftsmanship, explore diverse honey varieties, including iconic Leatherwood. Taste honey mead, witness our packing process, and unearth treasures in our gift shop. Feeling peckish? Head over to the Colony Cafe, where you can savour the flavours of local produce.

10am-4pm, Tuesday to Saturday, (cafe closes at 3pm). Closed public holidays. See Facebook for Christmas and Easter hours.

Get to know the Biosecurity Basics

Be careful what you bring with you to Tasmania. Tasmania has some of the world's most stringent biosecurity requirements, but we need your help to protect Tasmania from introduced pests, weeds and diseases. When you are returning home from a trip or visiting Tasmania, CHECK YOUR BAGS to ensure you are not carrying or importing any restricted or prohibited materials.

CHECK YOUR BAGS

COME IN CLEAN

Be sure to arrive in Tasmania with clean clothing, vehicles and equipment. Biosecurity threats including soil, weed seeds, disease agents and insect pests can have a negative impact on Tasmania's biosecurity, so be sure to thoroughly clean your clothes, vehicles and equipment BEFORE travelling to Tasmania so you can COME IN CLEAN.

Do not enter properties or private land without permission. Please resist the temptation to jump a fence to pose for a photo among the cherry trees or in an apple orchard - you could unintentionally introduce a pest, weed or disease to the property. Please respect the biosecurity protocols and plans of owners, operators and managers, and seek permission BEFORE entering.

STAY ON THE PATH

REPORT ANYTHING UNUSUAL

See it. Secure it. Report it. Keep an eye out for anything that could pose a biosecurity risk to Tasmania. If you SEE something unusual, for example fruit fly larvae in your fruit or vegetables, a plant disease, or an invasive pest or weed note the location and take a photo. SECURE the insect and REPORT it as soon as possible to Biosecurity Tasmania on 6165 3777.

We are
TASMANIAN GROWN.

This is our story...

On this remote island, that is both wild and calm, we grow some of the best produce in the world.

Here our produce thrives, grown in nurtured soils and fed by cool rain from southern oceans.

Our long, slow growing seasons allow our fruit to ripen naturally, with intense colour and flavour.

We are dedicated growers pursuing exceptional quality.

We never settle for anything less.

Cooler, cleaner, slower, better.

Experience the pure natural taste of Tasmanian Grown fruit.
